

CENTER FOR BIOLOGICAL PHYSICS

University of Massachusetts Amherst

GRANT WRITING WORKSHOP

WHEN: July 15, 2016

WHERE: Du Bois Library, Room 2601 and the Teaching Commons

WHO SHOULD ATTEND: Five-College faculty in the biological, biophysical, or biochemical sciences or engineering. Postdocs and graduate students currently involved in grant writing are also welcome to attend. The emphasis will be on interdisciplinary work.

PLEASE RSVP to lgoldner@physics.umass.edu if you plan to attend.

TENTATIVE AGENDA

9:00 – 10:30 am : Proposal Pitches (Room 2601). Come prepared with a 5 minute presentation and receive feedback from your colleagues!

10:30 am: coffee break.

11:00 am: Featured Talk! "Controlling the Flow of Information in Writing," Tobias Baskin, Department of Biology, UMass.

11:30-12:30: Experienced grant-writers will be available for specific advice and/or editorial assistance on your grant.

12:30 Lunch

1:30: Write among colleagues in the Teaching Commons.

Support for this event is through a Mutual Mentoring Grant from the UMass Institute for Teaching Excellence and Faculty Development.